- (b) Where extracts of the publication are photocopied, the actual costs of such photocopying.
- (c) Where information is provided in CD Rom or floppy the actual cost of the CD Rom or floppy.
- (d) Where information required is to be posted the actual postal charges, in addition to the Fee prescribed under (a), (b) and (c) above.

9. If any additional fee representing the cost of providing information will be required, the State Public Information Officer will send an intimation to the applicant regarding the details of additional fees, together with the calculations, with a request to deposit the additional fees. The period intervening between the dispatch of the said intimation and payment of fee, shall be excluded, for the purpose of calculating the period of thirty days.

10. If the requested information falls within the authorized person's jurisdiction, but not in one or more of the categories listed in Sections 8 and 9 of the Act, the authorized person, on being so satisfied, shall supply the information to the applicant in Form "D" appended to these Rules, falling within its jurisdiction. In case the information sought is outside the jurisdiction of the authorized person in the categories listed in Sections 8 and 9 of the Act, the authorized person shall supply only such information as is permissible under the Act and is within its own jurisdiction and reject the remaining part giving reasons thereof.

Provided that, no fees shall be charged from persons Below Poverty Line on production of attested copy of Below Poverty Line card, issued by the State Government.

11. If the information sought by an applicant is in the possession of another public authority or the subject matter of which is more closely connected with the functions of another public authority, such application or such part of it will be transferred to that public authority, and the applicant will be informed about the transfer of his application to that public authority.

Such transfer of application shall be made within five days from the date of receipt of the application.

12. If the information requested is rejected on the ground that it is exempted from disclosure under Section 8, access may be provided to that part of the record, which does not contain any information, so exempted from disclosure under Sec. 8 of the Act and is severable under Section 10 of the Act.

13. (i) The State Public Information Officer shall be responsible for receiving the applications for intimation or appeals under the Act and for providing information within the prescribed period of 30 days.
- (ii) The State Public Information Officer shall deal with the request from persons seeking information and render reasonable assistance to such persons.
14. The State Public Information Officer may reject a request for information if such a request involves infringement of copyright subsisting in a person, unless the copyright of the requested information subsists in the State.
15. If the information sought for by an applicant concerns life or liberty of a person, the State Public Information Officer will provide the required information within 48 hours of the receipt of the request.
16. If the State Public Information Officer fails to give a decision on the request of information within the prescribed period of thirty days, he shall be deemed to have refused the request.
17. The State Public Information Officer will provide assistance to any sensorily challenged person who is unable to access the record or a part thereof and such assistance will include any assistance, which may be appropriate for the inspection of the record.
18. The State Public Information Officer prior to taking any decision on any application made under sub section (1) to provide the desired information, shall take into consideration the representation made by the third party, if any.
19. Notwithstanding anything contained anywhere else in these Rules, the applicant will be furnished with the information requested for, if and only, the furnishing of such information is
- (i) requested for with a positive assertion that the motive for obtaining such information is proper and legal;
 - (ii) in accordance with the provisions of the said Act;
 - (iii) not likely to be disproportionately divert the resource of the High Court or the Subordinate Court, as the case might be;
 - (iv) not likely to be detrimental to the safety or preservation of the record in question and
 - (v) not otherwise against any law or practice prevailing in the material regard; and
 - (vi) after the processing of the application, permission has been obtained in that behalf from Hon'ble the Chief Justice, or any of the other Hon'ble Judges of the High Court of Sikkim, who might in that regard be, or have been, nominated by Hon'ble the Chief Justice.
20. If access is granted to a part of the record only, the State Public Information Officer shall give a notice to the applicant, informing him:
- (a) that only part of the record requested, after severance of the record containing information which is exempt from disclosure is being provided;
 - (b) the reasons for the decision, including any findings on any material question of fact, referring to the material on which those findings were based;
 - (c) the name and designation of the person giving the decision;
 - (d) the details of the fees calculated by him or her and the amount of fee which the applicant is required to deposit; and
 - (e) his or her rights with respect to review of the decision regarding non-disclosure of part of the information, the amount of fee charged, or the form of access provided, including the particulars of the senior officer specified under sub-section (1) of section 19 or the State Public Information Officer as the case may be, time limit, process and any other form of access.

21. If the State Public Information Officer intends to disclose any information or record, or part thereof which relates to or has been supplied by a third party and has been treated as confidential by that third party, he will give a written notice to such third party of the request within five days from the receipt of the request, that he intends to disclose that information or part thereof, and invite the third party within ten days to make a submission in writing or orally, whether such information should be disclosed.

The State Public Information Officer while taking a decision about disclosure of information shall take into consideration the submission of the third party.

22. If the third party has been given an opportunity to make a representation in respect of disclosure of any information, the State Public Information Officer shall take a decision as to whether or not to disclose the information from the record or part thereof, within forty days after the receipt of the request and give in writing the notice of his decision to the third party.

23. Appeal:-

(1) Any person who, does not receive a decision within the time specified in sub-section (1) or clause (a) of sub-section (3) of section 7, or is aggrieved by an order of the State Public Information Officer may, within thirty days from the date of receipt of the order of the State Public Information Officer, prefer an appeal to the concerned appellate authority on Form "E" appended to these rules, which shall be accompanied by an appeal fee by way of bank receipt of Rs.100/- deposited in the State Bank of Sikkim under the Major Head 0070-01-501 RTI Fee.

(2) Any person aggrieved by an order of the appellate authority under sub-section (1) of section 19 may, within ninety days from the date of receipt of the order of the appellate authority, prefer a second appeal to the State Information Commission on plain paper in Form "F" appended to these Rules, which shall be accompanied by an appeal fee of Rs.100/- by way of bank receipt deposited in the State Bank of Sikkim under the Major Head 0070-OAS (E) RTI Fee with a copy of such order appealed against.

24. The period of thirty days as envisaged Under Section 7(1) of the Act shall be computed from the date when the application along with the requisite fee is submitted or on the date of receipt of the application by post or E-mail as envisaged in Sec.3 along with fees, before the State Public Information Officer, or the Assistant State Public Information Officer, as the case may be.

The period of thirty days as envisaged Under Section 19 (2) of the Act, shall be computed from the date, when the appeal along with requisites is submitted before the concerned appellate authority.

25. The State Public Information Officer shall not be liable to provide any information, which can be obtained under the provisions of the High Court of Sikkim (Practice and Procedure) Rules, 1991. Such information may be obtained by adhering to the prescribed procedure and payment of fees prescribed in the High Court of Sikkim (Practice and Procedure) Rules, 1991.

26. The State Public Information Officer will not entertain any application from any citizen for providing any information relating to matters which are pending adjudication before the High Court, or Courts Subordinate thereto. The information relating to Judicial matters may be obtained as per the procedure prescribed in the High Court of Sikkim (Practice and Procedure) Rules, 1991. respectively.

27. The State Public Information Officer will not entertain any application from any citizen for inspection of any record which can be inspected under the High Court of Sikkim (Practice and Procedure) Rules, 1991.
